THE ANGEL OF THE SUITCASE

Argentinian Theater in New York - Toia & Callaci Theater Company

The company Toia & Callaci for the first time in New York presenting two unmissable shows
POETIC, POLITICAL AND POPULAR THEATER TO MAKE YOU THRILLED AND LAUGH

The company Toia & Callaci was born in Argentina, with the directors, actors and theatrical creators Agustina Toia and Severo Callaci. They work on creating and producing their shows, dictating international seminars on physical expressive training all over the world, proposing a unique poetic search through physical, poetic and popular theater. They have taken part in international festivals, won awards, gone on tour and done scenic work in Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Belgium, Mexico, Guatemala, El Salvador, Honduras, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Peru, Bolivia, Chile, Uruguay, Paraguay, Cuba, and Spain. Currently, they are on tour with two shows: "The Angel of the Suitcase" a poetic and fantastic comedy with more than 100 shows on 12 different countries (live version and movie – theater version) available on the Tickethoy platform, and "The Juanas, a cosmic heresy" (a deep work on the feminine universe). In 2021 they premiered the documentary "The Lord of the Trees".
